Praying with the English Tradition, 1990 The Book of Common Prayer and its Commentators 1655–1901 David Jasper, 2025-06-15 A history of commentaries on the Book of Common Prayer beginning in the Commonwealth period of the mid seventeenth century and ending at the beginning of the twentieth century John Eliot and the Praying Indians of Massachusetts Bay Kathryn N. Gray, 2013-09-12 This book traces the development of John Eliot's mission to the Algonquian speaking people of Massachusetts Bay from his arrival in 1631 until his death in 1690 It explores John Eliot's determination to use the Massachusett dialect of Algonquian both in speech and in print as a language of conversion and Christianity The book analyzes the spoken words of religious conversion and the written transcription of those narratives it also considers the Algonquian language texts and English language texts which Eliot published to support the mission Central to this study is an insistence that John Eliot consciously situated his mission within a tapestry of contesting transatlantic and political forces and that this framework had a direct impact on the ways in which Native American penitents shaped and contested their Christian identities To that end the study begins by examining John Eliot's transatlantic network of correspondents and missionary supporters in England it then considers the impact of conversion narratives in spoken and written forms and ends by evaluating the impact of literacy on praying Indian communities The study maps the coalescence of different communities that shaped or were shaped by Eliot's seventeenth century mission Marian Poem-Prayers in the Modern Age Jean Ward, 2025-10-16 This book explores a range of twentieth and twenty first century poem prayers directed to or involving Mary In readings of works by T S Eliot David Jones Geoffrey Hill Elizabeth Jennings Hilary Davies Rowan Williams and others Ward traces the resurgence of interest in Mary from the late nineteenth century to the present day By the early twentieth century the once widespread and fervent cult of the Virgin Mary had for more than three hundred years been largely absent from England's religious life Similarly the figure of Mary had almost vanished from English poetry only to return gradually as Marian devotion began to revive in the nineteenth century The perception of this devotion as somehow un-English dominant since the Reformation presented a challenge to poets engaged with the Marian theme in the modern day Marian Poem Prayers in the Modern Age examines how male and female poets from both Roman Catholic and Anglican backgrounds responded to this situation The book also argues that the figure of Mary is a type of John Henry Newman's category of real assent commitment that is not merely intellectual but involves the totality of a person's being in relation to God Priests' ceremonial. The Order of holy communion with directions and prayers for the priest at plain celebrations of the same. From 'Notes on ceremonial' [by H.G. Morse]. Herbert George Morse, 1888 A Treasure to be Shared Walter Oxley, Ulrich Rhode, 2022-07 A Treasure to Be Shared is intended to promote a more widespread knowledge of the Apostolic Constitution Anglicanorum coetibus promulgated by Pope Benedict XVI in 2009 The Apostolic Constitution provided for Personal Ordinariates for Anglicans entering into full communion with the Catholic Church On the occasion of the 10th anniversary of the Apostolic Constitution an academic symposium in the year 2019 sponsored by the Pontifical Gregorian University and the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith provided historical liturgical canonical and ecumenical perspectives on the fruits of the Apostolic Constitution for the wider Church The hope is that the reader will see the Personal Ordinariates of The Chair of Saint Peter in the United States and Canada Our Lady of Walsingham in Great Britain and Our Lady of the Southern Cross in Australia as a gift to the Church and a treasure to be shared by all Journal of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America Episcopal Church. across the religious divide are facing opposition and are dealing with similar religious questions of inclusive language or the impact of traditional female roles
