Biblical Eschatology, Second Edition Jonathan Menn, 2018-03-07 Biblical Eschatology provides what is not found in any other single volume on eschatology it analyzes all the major eschatological passages including the Olivet Discourse and the book of Revelation issues including the second coming of Christ the millennium the rapture and Antichrist and positions including all the major views of the millennium in a clear but not superficial way The book concludes with a chapter showing how eschatology is relevant for our lives Biblical Eschatology makes understanding eschatology easier by including chapters on how to interpret prophecy and apocalyptic literature by showing the history of eschatological thought and by placing eschatology in the context of the Bible's overall story line and structure Clarity and understanding are enhanced by the use of comparative tables and appendices Subject and Scripture indexes are included The book interacts with the best of Evangelical and Reformed scholarship and the extensive bibliography which includes the web addresses of many online resources provides an excellent source for the reader's further study This is a perfect resource for intelligent Christians including pastors students and teachers who desire to understand eschatology and to see how it fits together with the rest of the Bible

The teaching of the Prayer-book, for the children of the Church Edward Thomas Stevens, 1887

Maccabean Martyr Traditions in Paul's Theology of Atonement Jarvis J. Williams, 2010-01-01 In an age in which scholars continue to produce books on the nature and significance of Jesus's death books that often assume the Old Testament cult was the New Testament authors primary background for their conception of Jesus's death Jarvis J. Williams offers a fresh and novel contribution regarding both the nature of and background influences behind Paul's conception of Jesus's death He argues that Paul's conception of Jesus's death both as an atoning sacrifice and as a saving event for Jews and Gentiles was significantly influenced by Maccabean Martyr Theology To argue his thesis Williams engages in an intense exegesis of 2 and 4 Maccabees while also interacting with other Second Temple Jewish texts that are relevant to his thesis Williams further interacts with relevant Old Testament texts and the key texts in the Pauline corpus He argues that the authors of 2 and 4 Maccabees present the deaths of the Jewish martyrs during the reign of Antiochus Epiphanes IV as atoning sacrifices and as a saving event for Israel He further argues that although the Old

Testament's cultic language certainly influenced Paul's understanding of Jesus's death at certain junctures in his letters the Old Testament cult alone which emphasized animal sacrifices cannot fully explain why or even how Paul could conceive of Jesus's death a human sacrifice as both an atoning sacrifice and a saving event for Jews and Gentiles Finally Williams highlights the lexical theological and conceptual parallels between Martyr Theology and Paul's conception of Jesus's death Even if scholars disagree with Williams's thesis or methodology serious Pauline scholars interested in the background influences behind and the nature and significance of Jesus's death in Paul's theology will want to interact with this work
