THE Preacher AND THE Slave

BY WALLACE STEGNER

The Preacher and the Slave is the story of Joe Hill, the man and the myth.

From time to time a man lives and dies and becomes a legend. In our own brief history, we have had several such figures. These men walked the American earth but the sound of their footsteps did not fade when they died; it grew into the drumbeat to which thousands marched, and the reality of the men was lost in the phantom which their followers created. One of these legends was named Joe Hill.

Joe Hill was the militant laboring man's hero in the days when "union" was a fighting word. His legend is crystallized in that famous telegram sent just before his execution: "Don't waste any time mourning. Organize."
