Preaching The Epistles:

Preaching the Epistles Raymond F. Collins, 1996 Most Sunday homilists have shied away from preaching the epistles because Paul seems too difficult for them Raymond Collins explores the reasons for this lack of familiarity and the reluctance to use the New Testament epistles as topics for the Sunday homily He shows us just how important it is for the richness of the epistles to be incorporated into the Sunday sermon Using the Sunday Lectionary as a basis Preaching the Epistles unlocks the richness in the epistles of Paul James and John Peter and Jude and the book of Revelation Collins shows us how to present these scriptures in a meaningful and challenging way for people today by offering reflections and practical suggestions on sharing God's word within their communities BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Modern Preacher and the Ancient Text Sidney Greidanus, 1989-01-19 A fusion of biblical hermeneutics and homiletics this thorough and well researched book offers a holistic contemporary approach to the interpretation and preaching of biblical texts using all the scholarly tools available and focusing especially on literary features Greidanus develops hermeneutical and homiletical principles and then applies them to four specific genres Hebrew narratives prophetic literature the Gospels and the Epistles

Preaching the Pastoral Epistles Robert W. Wall, 2024-04-09 Since the second century 1 Timothy and Titus often referred to as the Pastoral Epistles have been read and practiced together to help order a Christian congregation's life and mission These three letters were likely recognized early on as divinely inspired scripture and were added to the Pauline collection to help train the spiritual leaders of earliest Christianity However they are rarely taught in most congregations and seminaries today Admittedly the genre of these letters paraenesis is hard to preach The primary reason for their neglect however is modern criticism's silencing of them because most scholars think they were not written by Paul and are not aligned with either his gospel or mission Moreover they include instructions that are widely received today as out of sync with our modern social worlds This Proclamation Commentary on these Pauline letters presumes both their apostolic authority as divinely inspired and human inspiring scripture and their contemporary relevance in encouraging clergy and teachers to reimagine their roles as ministers of the gospel and spiritual leaders for today's global church

The Epistles of Paul to the Philippians and to Philemon Jac J. Muller, 1955 This trusted commentary by Jac J Muller provides careful expositions of Philippians and Philemon that are characterized by a desire to balance the requirements of exacting scholarship and the need to relate Scripture to personal faith In treating insightfully and comprehensively these Pauline epistles Muller first provides essential historical and critical background to each text including its date and place of origin its occasion and purpose and its style structure and general themes The commentaries themselves then proceed through the texts section by section making clear Paul's message both to his original audiences and to readers today Long included in the widely acclaimed New International Commentary on the New Testament series and now available as an independent work this volume continues to hold extraordinary value for scholars pastors students and general readers alike This is a painstaking and helpful commentary The British Weekly Jac J M ller was professor of New Testament at the University of Stellenbosch South Africa His other books explored themes in New Testament studies and church ministry Critical and Exegetical Handbook to the Epistles of St. Paul to the Thessalonians Gottlieb Lünemann,1884 *pt. 1. Long,1989 Long argues that the literary form and dynamics of biblical texts can and should make a difference in the kinds of sermons created from those texts not only because of what the texts say but because of how they say it He presents a methodology for taking the literary characteristics of biblical texts into account in the text to sermon process and then applies that methodology in separate chapters on preaching on psalms proverbs narratives parables and epistles *An exposition of the epistles of st.
