A photograph of a person standing in the center of a long, arched tunnel. The person is wearing a dark red long-sleeved shirt and light-colored cargo pants, with their hands behind their head. The tunnel has a dark floor and light-colored, possibly metallic, walls with visible rivets and structural elements. The perspective is looking down the length of the tunnel, creating a sense of depth.

Preaching without Borders Ryan Roach, 2022-09-08 Though the United States has been a relatively diverse nation Americans have historically lived close to those who are ethnically and culturally like them

The unfortunate effects of slavery Jim Crow segregation housing discrimination prejudice and bigotry have been key reasons for demographic divisions While divisions remain communities that were once monoethnic are experiencing changes that are enriching The challenge for these communities is to work to break down barriers that prevent lasting authentic relationships resulting in spiritual growth Churches in these communities are at a crossroads and face a choice do they keep doing what is comfortable despite the changes in their neighborhoods or do they work to resemble their neighbors Preaching Without Borders addresses the challenges preachers face when they attempt to be faithful to the text while contextualizing it so that people of every nation tribe and tongue can be transformed by Jesus

Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2004 Women Preaching Eunjo Mary Kim, 2004 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women s preaching this book makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics because it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection It is the author s hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman s perspective Kim gives a detailed account of women preachers from ancient times until the present from women of the Western and Eastern churches to women of Asian and Latin American churches showing the perspectives and insights that increase and enhance out understanding of who God is and what God is doing as well as the implications for preaching now and in the future Women Preaching is a call to the church to accept women preachers as a matter of justice and a theological necessity
