Women Preachers and Prophets through Two Millennia of Christianity Beverly Mayne Kienzle,Pamela J.

Walker,2023-09-01 For nearly two millennia despite repeated prohibitions Christian women have preached Some have preached in official settings others have found alternative routes for expression Prophecy teaching writing and song have all filled a broad definition of preaching This anthology with essays by an international group of scholars from several disciplines investigates the diverse voices of Christian women who claimed the authority to preach and prophesy. The contributors examine the centuries of arguments grounded in Pauline injunctions against women's public speech and the different ways women from the early years of the church through the twentieth century have nonetheless exercised religious leadership in their communities. Some of them based their authority solely on divine inspiration; others were authorized by independent minded communities; a few were even recognized by the church hierarchy. With its lively accounts of women preachers and prophets in the Christian tradition, this exceptionally well documented collection will interest scholars and general readers alike. For nearly two millennia despite repeated prohibitions, Christian women have preached. Some have preached in official settings; others have found alternative routes for expression. Prophecy, teaching, writing, and song have all filled a broad definition.

On the Way With-- American Baptist Women, 1996 Outstanding Black Sermons Walter S. Thomas, 1976. Encompassing themes ranging from racial and gender discrimination in the church and society to the tenets of their shared theology, their sermons reveal women of great faith, courage, and wisdom. Dr. Collier-Thomas provides the reader with vital background information about these women's lives, their theology, and the issues that moved them to preach. In addition to a broad historical overview, she discusses the specific circumstances of each preacher and gives insightful analysis of her sermons.
