Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1999      The Living Church ,2002      Preaching Without Notes Prof. Joseph M. Webb,2010-09-01 In this important book Webb makes two central claims First that effective preaching without a manuscript is not a matter of talent as much as it is a matter of preparation Preachers can learn the practices and disciplines that make it possible to deliver articulate thoughtfully crafted sermons not from a written page but as a natural spontaneous act of oral communication Throughout the book the author offers specific examples including a transcript of a sermon preached without manuscript or notes Second that the payoff of learning to preach without a manuscript is nothing less than sermons that more effectively and engagingly give witness to the good news      Preaching Through the Year of Mark Roger Alling,David J. Schlafer,1999 Preaching through the Year of Mark is the eighth in a series of books devoted to presenting examples of preaching excellence These sermons collected from the 1998 Preaching Excellence Program and from clergy nationwide focus on biblical passages for Liturgical Year B which focuses on the Gospel of Mark Sermons for the major holy days as well as a selection of Sundays throughout the year will be helpful to pastors preparing to preach as well as lay people who seek a better understanding of the book of Mark      Equipped for Good Work Joe H. Cothen, Th.D,2014-11-21 A practical handbook for today s pastors Extensively updated to aid in meeting the increased demands and challenges of twenty first century ministry this edition includes expanded indexes reading lists and technological suggestions Covering everything from policy programming to organizational management each invaluable chapter serves as a vital resource for ministers facing the challenges of pastoral work today      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991      Minutes of the ... Annual Session of the Baptist General Association of Virginia Baptist General Association of Virginia,1895      The English Catalogue of Books ,1901      Preaching Through Holy Days and Holidays Roger Alling,David J. Schlafer,2003 Each volume would follow the pattern of 1 a brief opening introductory essay that would shape the context for that volume 2 a selection of sermons from preachers active in the pulpit organized under headings appropriate to the topic of the volume as well as sub topics within the volume 3 several complementary and reflective essays from professionals of distinction in the field of homiletics 4 sermons from the annual Preaching Excellence Conference as exemplified in the previous Preaching Through the Year of Matthew Mark and Luke      Preaching Mark's Gospel Richard A. Jensen,1996 In a classic case of failing to see the forest for the trees Jensen a homiletics professor and author of two works on narrative preaching says that preachers tend to analyze biblical books to glean the slightest bits of exegetical data yet miss the thrust of the overarching story they try to convey Jensen contends that preachers get too caught up in an analytical left brained mentality that obscures the power and meaning of the good news story In these pages Jensen helps us approach Mark s gospel with eyes wide open rather than with microscope in hand He treats Mark s gospel as a narrative whole and challenges preachers to tell the gospel s story to their congregations In doing so Jensen emphasizes the strength of biblical stories He says that these stories are powerful in and of themselves and that they work without much explanatory help The problem is that listeners never hear the entire story because it is always told to them in bits and pieces Jensen's adaptation of what Robert Alter author of The Art of Biblical Narrative calls narrative analogy assumes that parallel acts or situations are used to comment on each other in biblical narrative In other words if Mark told story B to flesh out the reality of story A then perhaps preachers today can do the same thing in their preaching Students of Jensen have enthusiastically embraced this approach This is great we never get to hear them stories whole How did it ever occur to us that we could improve on the story of the Prodigal Son for example by reducing it to ideas Richard A Jensen teaches homiletics at Wartburg Seminary in Dubuque Iowa and Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago He is best known for his ten year stint as preacher for the national radio program Lutheran Vespers He has also produced a television series titled Reflections and one titled Rhapsody
