Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermonic preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology Preaching with Cultural Intelligence Matthew D. Kim, 2017-10-17 To preach effectively in today s world preachers need cultural intelligence They must build bridges between listeners who come from various denominations ethnicities genders locations religious backgrounds and more Experienced preacher and teacher Matthew Kim provides a step by step template for cross cultural hermeneutics and homiletics equipping preachers to reach their varied listeners in the church and beyond Each chapter includes questions for individual thought or group discussion The book also includes helpful diagrams and images a sample sermon and appendixes for exegeting listeners and for exploring cultural differences The Preacher as Liturgical Artist Trygve David Johnson, 2014-01-24 Trygve Johnson invites us to consider a new metaphor of identity of The Preacher as Liturgical Artist This identity draws on a theology of communion and the doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ to relocate the preacher s identity in the creative and ongoing ministry of Jesus Christ Johnson argues the metaphorical association of the preacher and artist understood within the artistic ministry of Jesus Christ frees the full range of human capacities including the imagination to bear upon the arts of Christian proclamation The Preacher as Liturgical Artist connects preachers to the person and work of Jesus Christ whose own double ministry took the raw materials of the human condition and offered them back to the Father in a redemptive and imaginative fashion through the Holy Spirit It is in the large creative ministry of Jesus Christ that preachers find their creativity freed to proclaim the gospel bodily within the context of the liturgical work of God s people Preaching in Today's World James C.
