Prehistoric Indonesia:

Prehistoric Indonesia Piet van de Velde, 1984 Southeast Asia Ian Glover, Peter S. Bellwood, 2004 This comprehensive and absorbing book traces the cultural history of Southeast Asia from prehistoric especially Neolithic Bronze Iron age times through to the major Hindu and Buddhist civilizations to around AD 1300 Southeast Asia has recently attracted archaeological attention as the locus for the first recorded sea crossings as the region of origin for the Austronesian population dispersal across the Pacific from Neolithic times as an arena for the development of archaeologically rich Neolithic and metal using communities especially in Thailand and Vietnam and as the backdrop for several unique and strikingly monumental Indic civilizations such as the Khmer civilization centred around Angkor Southeast Asia is invaluable to anyone interested in the full history of the region Globalizing the Prehistory of Japan Ann Kumar, 2008-11-24 This iconoclastic work on the prehistory of Japan and of South East Asia challenges entrenched views on the origins of Japanese society and identity The social changes that took place in Japan in the time period when the Jomon culture was replaced by the Yayoi culture were of exceptional magnitude going far beyond those of the so called Neolithic Revolution in other parts of the world They included not only a new way of life based on wet rice agriculture but also the introduction of metalworking in both bronze and iron and furthermore a new architecture functionally and ritually linked to rice cultivation a new religion and a hierarchical society characterized by a belief in the divinity of the ruler Because of its immense and enduring impact the Yayoi period has generally been seen as the very foundation of Japanese civilization and identity In contrast to the common assumption that all the Yayoi innovations came from China and Korea this work combines exciting new scientific evidence from such different fields as rice genetics DNA and historical linguistics to show that the major elements of Yayoi civilization actually came not from the north but from the south Ancient Indonesian Bronzes, 1988 Catalogus van de tentoonstelling die een overzicht geeft van bronzen zilveren en gouden beeldjes en cultusobjecten uit Indonesië 600-1600 n.C.
