Identity and Belonging Among Chinese Australians Jennifer Martin, Dharma Arunachalam, Helen Forbes-Mewett, 2023-11-20 This book describes the ethnic identity construction involved in being feeling and doing Chinese for multi generation Australian born Chinese who were born and raised in a different social environment It demonstrates how Chineseness is manifested in a multitude of ways and totally debunks any notion that being Chinese is a simple identity marker The book shows that while there are commonalities with the American born the experiences of Australia born Chinese are distinct in many ways This book is a timely and critically examination of the inescapability of Chineseness particularly when social and economic stability is threatened and those in power are looking for a scapegoat

Asian Americans Pyong Gap Min, 2006 Compared to many existing texts on this subject which tend to take a rather historical approach this book focuses on more contemporary Asian experiences Thus Min has provided a new tool for those of use who have looked for adequate material to teach current Asian American trends in advanced undergraduate courses in the sociology of race as well as in ethnic studies Encompassing a variety of perspectives from prominent scholars makes this book a valuable device to examine the less visible aspects of Asian Americans lives Students and educators alike would certainly benefit from diligent study of this text TEACHING SOCIOLOGY reviewed October 2006 by Etsuko Maruoka SUNY Stony Brook Offering a broad overview of the Asian American experience Asian Americans provides an accessible resource for all students interested in the expanding and important Asian American population While historical information is provided for each group the main focus is on the variables and issues that impact Asian American life today The scholars who author the chapters look at topics such as labor force participation and economic status educational achievements intermarriage intergroup relations and settlement patterns Photo essays help to enhance the presentations Key Features Covers the Asian American population as a whole as well as individual ethnic groups i e Korean Americans Indian Americans etc Covers theories as well as providing sociological data to illustrate issues for Asian Americans as a whole and as individual groups Visual essays on the following topics provide powerful illustrations of the text content Filipino Americans Japanese Americans Korean Americans Chinese Americans South Asian Americans Southeast Asian Americans Economic Adaptation Second Generation Experiences Updated to not only include information derived from 2000 Census data but also has a focus on the second generation experience The State, Development and Identity in Multi-Ethnic Societies Nicholas Tarling, Terence Gomez, 2008-03-03 The controversial work of Amy Chua argues that as rapid modernization industrialization technological change and globalization bring about fundamental changes in national ethnic and class identities especially in developing countries there is a danger that the laissez faire capitalist system will cause serious racial conflagration especially in societies where there is ethnic minority market dominance combined with ethno nationalist type politicians who mobilize support from ethnic majority communities by drawing attention to inequalities in wealth distribution This controversial work goes on to argue for an authoritarian political system with curbs against the corporate expansion of enterprises owned by ethnic minorities until parity in equity ownership among all communities is achieved This book tests the assumptions behind these arguments discussing ethnic communities identity economy society and state and the links between them in a range of countries in East Asia Southeast Asia and the Pacific and diaspora communities of Asian peoples in the West It demonstrates that identity transformation occurs as generations of minority communities succeed each other that old discourses of fixed origins which are assumed to bind ethnic communities into cohesive wholes do not apply that there are very extensive inter linkages in the daily activities of people of different ethnic and religious backgrounds that affirmative action type policies along racial lines can undermine overall societal cohesion and that there is no case for limiting democracy until economic equity is achieved This is a rich important book with huge implications for economic development and for states throughout the world as multi ethnic societies world wide become more extensive and more complicated Ethnicity, Gender and Identity Among Second-generation Arab Americans Kristine Joyce Ajrouch, 1997 Contested Childhoods: Growing up in Migrancy Marie Louise Seeberg, Elżbieta M. Goździak, 2016-10-25 This book is open access under a CC BY NC 2 5 license This open access book explores specific migration governance and identity processes currently involving children and ideas of childhood Migrancy as a social space allows majority populations to question the capabilities of migrants and is a space in which an increasing number of children are growing up In this space families nation states civil society as well as children themselves are central actors engaged in contesting the meaning of childhood Childhood is a field of conceptual moral and political contestation where the battles may range from minor tensions and everyday negotiations of symbolic or practical importance involving a limited number of people to open conflicts involving violence and law enforcement The chapters demonstrate the importance of how we understand phenomena involving children when children are trafficked seeking refuge taken into custody active in gangs or in youth organisations and struggling with identity work This book examines countries representing very different engagements and policies regarding migrancy and children As a result readers are presented with a comprehensive volume ideal for both the classroom and for policy makers and practitioners The chapters are written by experts in social anthropology human geography political science sociology and psychology
