Second Wife and Other Stories from China Rhona Baptiste, 2001 In this collection of short stories Rhona Baptiste describes her experiences in China since coming to teach at a Junior Teachers College in Guangzhou Cover The Missing Kidney and other stories Maxine Rosaler, 2025-05-13 Set in the grungy New York City of the 1970s and 80s these stories convey a sense of the enchantment that lurks on the flip side of every moment as if the meaning of life were hidden within the static being blasted out of the loudspeakers on a subway platform or a scrap of newspaper preserved under ice on a cold winter's day A girl tries to save the boy she loves from his crippling love for his uncle A champion of social justice talks herself into believing that the man she finds sexually repulsive is a perfect fit for her perfectly ordered life A man kneels on the sidewalk before a memorial he constructed for his girlfriend as a crowd of curious onlookers gather around him Rosaler deals out the fates of a vivid array of complex characters with unflagging energy wit and a delight in the details of city life

The Chinese Love Story from the Tenth to the Fourteenth Century Alister D. Inglis, 2023-04-01 Love stories formed a major part of the classical short story genre in China from as early as the eighth century when men of letters began to write about romantic encounters In later centuries such stories provided inspiration for several new literary genres While much scholarly attention has been focused on the short story of both the medieval and late imperial eras comparatively little work has been attempted on the interim stage the Song and Yuan dynasties which spanned some five hundred years from the tenth to the fourteenth centuries Yet this was a crucial developmental period for many forms of narrative literature so much so that any understanding of late imperial narrative should be informed by the earlier tradition The first study of its kind in English The Chinese Love Story from the Tenth to the Fourteenth Century traces the development of the love story throughout this important yet overlooked era Using Tang dynasty stories as a point of comparison Alister D Inglis examines and appraises key new themes paying special attention to period hallmarks gender portrayal and textuality Inglis demonstrates that contrary to received scholarly wisdom this was a highly innovative period during which writers and storytellers laid a fertile foundation for the literature of late imperial China Fifty-two other stories for girls, by Mrs. G.L.
