Roles Seppo Kittilä, Fernando Zúñiga, 2016-06-29 Especially in functional typological linguistics semantic roles have been studied thoroughly because they constitute a good starting point for any study on argument marking due to their semantically defined nature. However, the very concept of semantic roles is far from being without problems and there is still no consensus on how the roles are best defined. In this volume the notion will be discussed from novel perspectives with the aim of providing new insights into our understanding of semantic roles. Two of the papers deal with semantic role clusters: one with semantic roles in verbless constructions, one with diachrony of semantic roles and two with individual semantic roles that have not been studied in too much detail in previous studies. The book may not offer answers to all questions the readers may have but at least it raises interesting further questions relevant to arriving at a better understanding of semantic roles.

In der linguistischen Theorie spielen Situationsargumente als Komponenten der lexikalisch semantischen Repräsentation im Bereich verbaler Kategorien eine zentrale Rolle. Die Beiträge des Sammelbandes erweitern das Postulat eines Situationsarguments auf den Bereich deverbaler Wortbildungsprodukte. Sie thematisieren den Status von Situationsargumenten anhand nominaler Einheiten mit einem verbalen Bestandteil. Die zentrale Frage dabei ist, wie und mit welchen syntaktischen und semantischen Reflexen ein verbales Situationsargument auf Wortebene kompositional in eine nominale Gesamtbedeutung eingehen kann. Anhand der für die verbalen Kategorien etablierten Diagnostiken werden in den einzelnen Beiträgen differenzierte Analysen zur Integration und Interpretation des Situationsarguments deverbaler Kategorien entwickelt. Dabei werden zugleich die unterschiedlichen Formen nominaler Strukturbildung (Derivation, Komposition, Konversion) abgedeckt. Der Band umfasst einen ersten Teil zu Nomen mit verbalem Bestandteil und in einen zweiten Teil zu Partizipien in adjektivischer Distribution. Zur Einführung ist ein Überblicksartikel vorangestellt, der die formalen Grundlagen für eine syntaktosemantische Erfassung von Situationsargumenten skizziert. Symmetrical Voice and Linking in Western Austronesian Languages Sonja Riesberg, 2014. This book is an in-depth study of the voice systems of Totoli, Balinese, Indonesian and Tagalog, which shows that the symmetrical nature of these systems poses a problem to current linking theories. It provides an analysis of symmetrical linking within two grammatical theories, LFG and RRG, and develops a modified LFG linking mechanism that sheds light on the differences as well as the similarities of symmetrical and asymmetrical voice systems. Journal of African Languages and Linguistics ,2006 Afroasiatic Studies in Memory of Robert Hetzron Charles Häberl, 2009. Robert Hetzron first organized the North American Conference on Afroasiatic Linguistics (NACAL) at the University of California, Santa Barbara, in 1973 and passed away only six months after it had completed a quarter century of annual meetings. He would undoubtedly have been pleased to know that NACAL is still going strong and that ten years after his passing it attracted no fewer than thirty-six scholars from the United States, Canada, and eight other countries who presented on topics near and dear to his heart, such as phonology, morphology, syntax, language contact classification subgrouping and the history of scholarship in languages such as Amharic Arabic Aramaic Egyptian Hebrew Omotic and others as well as the groups to which they pertain Since he established it NACAL has served a unique role among the meetings of learned societies in North America Only a handful of organizations worldwide hold annual meetings dedicated to Afroasiatic linguistics and NACAL is one of a very small number of venues where linguists from all sub disciplines and schools of thought meet to share their research NACAL is also an academic nexus a unique node at which graduate students at the beginning of their careers rub shoulders with the native speakers of the languages which they study and with the titans of their fields men and women of an almost legendary stature such as Hetzron himself This volume contains sixteen contributions from these scholars on a broad cross section of topics within the field of Afroasiatic linguistics
