Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Theologie als kirchliche Praktik Reinhard Hütter,1997 Theological Education in the Catholic Tradition Patrick W. Carey,Earl C. Muller,1997 The aim of this book is both to raise questions about the contemporary theological enterprise and to suggest ways to improve theological education at the college seminary and graduate levels With that in mind the editors have here gathered together important essays by leading theologians and prominent bishops that provide expert assessment of the present state of Catholic theological education and its future prospects treating a full range of the most pressing topics from undergraduate and graduate programs to the role of bishops and the task of inculturation Theologische Revue ,1992

Theology and the Interhuman Robert R. Williams,1995 The essays in this volume are intended to recognize honor and respond to the multifaceted thought of Edward Farley The title for this volume is meant to articulate both a central theme developed in Edward Farley s constructive theology and a broad connection between theology and other concerns reflective ontology and deconstruction intersubjectivity ethics and social political criticism of advanced industrial society The different voices and levels of concern of the contributors reflect the diverse and wide ranging character of Farley s work In his preface editor Robert Williams notes that Farley s constructive theology was inaugurated in his theological prolegomena Ecclesial Man 1975 that appropriated not only Husserl s phenomenological method for theology but also Husserl s concept of the life world Lebenswelt The life world as the concrete historical a priori underlying theoretical thought is an interhuman domain that is also the locus of faith and ethics Hence the title of this book Theology and the Interhuman Theology and the Interhuman then represents more than a collection of essays in honor of an influential scholar and teacher While the various contributions concentrate on historical philosophical theology theological education and various areas of practical theology they do so in a way that continues and expands conversations that have been and will be going on for some time BOOK

Interreligious Learning Didier Pollefeyt,2007 The growth of secularisation pluralism and globalisation have placed the West s traditional monoreligious education under pressure Christianity no longer possesses a privileged position in Western Europe Since the 1970 s a number of scholars have been trying to formulate an answer to this question of multireligiosity by developing a multireligious concept of religious education As both a critique on and alternative for the multireligious model scholars in the 1990s developed the interreligious model of religious education This approach distinguishes itself from monoreligious pedagogy through acknowledging plurality among the pupils as both a part of departure and as a possible end result of religious education Moreover it openly approaches the plurality of religions and worldviews as a learning opportunity Religious education thus becomes a place of encounter and dialogue between different religious convictions Interreligious learning further distinguishes itself from the multireligious model by overcoming a purely objective representation of the multitude of religions In the interreligious model students are not only informed but are introduced to the cognitive and value commitments underlying the different religions giving them the opportunity to enrich and develop their own personal religious identity The teacher takes an explicit and particular religious Christian standpoint but also tries to bring in other committed religious and philosophical voices The interreligious model aims to teach students that holding a proper religious identity while having an openness to the religious other is not necessarily self contradictory What is more that authentic religiosity is able to welcome the other in his her vulnerability and strength as a witness to God In this volume scholars from various disciplines theology pedagogy psychology and ethics and from different religious backgrounds Jews Christians and Muslims face up to a total of ten challenges related to interreligious learning Challenges that may act as obstacles to the acceptance of this possible new paradigm for religious education Year Book of the Churches ,2004
