Sarah Bernhardt Artist And Icon:

Sarah Bernhardt William A. Emboden, 1992 Catalog of an exhibition relating to the imagery and life of renowned French actress Sarah Bernhardt at The Severin Wunderman Museum in Irvine CA These photographs drawings posters and other memorabilia are all from the personal collection of Severin Wunderman who donated them to the museum They are accompanied by a biography of Bernhardt's life and accomplishments written by William A. Emboden Dir of Research The Severin Wunderman Museum and an introduction by Tony Clark Exec Dir of the museum Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship From Jacques Louis David's irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo's graphic works from Edouard Manet's illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh's paintings of books from Honoré de Balzac's Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans's A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France's cultural history Women in the Arts in the Belle Époque Paul Fryer, 2012-11-01 This collection of new essays explores the role played by women practitioners in the arts during the period often referred to as the Belle Époque a turn of the century period in which the modern media audio and film recording broadcasting etc began to become a reality Exploring the careers and creative lives of both the famous Sarah Bernhardt and the less so Pauline Townsend across a remarkable range of artistic activity from composition through oratory to fine art and film directing these essays attempt to reveal in some cases for the first time women's true impact on the arts at the turn of the 19th century Theatre History Studies, 2002 Art Now Gallery Guide, 1992-11 Local/global Deborah Cherry, Janice Helland, 2006 Local Global Women Artists in the Nineteenth Century is the first book to investigate women artists working in disparate parts of the world This pioneering collection addresses issues at the heart of feminist and post colonial studies the nature of difference discrepant modernities and cross cultural encounters Written in a lively and accessible style this lavishly illustrated volume offers fresh perspectives on women art and identity It is essential reading for anyone interested in the history of women artists and the art of the nineteenth century Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings Kirstin Ringelberg, 2017-07-05 Were late nineteenth century gender boundaries as restrictive

as is generally held In Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings Work Place Domestic Space Kirstin Ringelberg argues that it is time to bring the current re evaluation of the notion of separate spheres to these images Focusing on studio paintings by American artists William Merritt Chase and Mary Fairchild MacMonnies Low she explores how the home based painting studio existed outside of entrenched gendered divisions of public and private space and argues that representations of these studios are at odds with standard perceptions of the images their creators and the concept of gender in the nineteenth century Unlike most of their bourgeois contemporaries Gilded Age artists whether male or female often melded the worlds of work and home Through analysis of both paintings and literature of the time Ringelberg reveals how art history continues to support a false dichotomy that in fact paintings that show women negotiating a complex combination of professionalism and domesticity are still overlooked in favor of those that emphasize women as decorative objects Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings challenges the dominant interpretation of American and European Impressionism and considers both men and women artists as active performers of multivalent identities

Icons of Beauty Debra N. Mancoff, 2010 From images of Eve to Cindy Sherman's self portraits from Cleopatra to Madonna from ancient goddesses to modern celebrities this work offers an overview of the most revered icons of female beauty in world art from pre history to the present What gives beauty such fascinating power Why is beauty so easy to recognize but so hard to define Across cultures and continents and over the centuries the standards of beauty have changed but the desire to portray beauty to praise beauty and to possess beauty has never diminished This set offers insight as to how we can use perceptions of beauty to learn about world cultures both past and present Each chapter looks at an individual work of art to pose a question about the power of beauty What makes beauty modern What is the influence of celebrities How do women portray their own beauty in a different manner than men In depth profiles of the icons reveal how specific ideas about beauty were developed and expressed offering a full analysis of their history cultural significance and lasting influence In addition to renowned works of art it also looks at icons in literature film politics and contemporary entertainment Interdisciplinary and multicultural in its approach chapters inside this set also feature sidebars on provocative topics and issues such as foot binding and body adornment myths and practices opinions and interpretations and even related films songs and even comic book characters
