Have Questions Comments Working and Mothering in Asia Theresa W. Devasahayam, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2007 Large numbers of women in Asia engage in paid work in many cases outside the home Some of them simply need to support their families Others particularly educated women hope to develop rewarding careers Many of these women also continue to shoulder the home and family responsibilities that social and cultural norms define as their primary concern In an effort to balance the conflicting demands of these roles women in various Asian societies are negotiating contesting and reconfiguring motherhood

Back cover The Overparenting Solution George S. Glass, David Tabatsky, 2021-10-29 Features pragmatic reasonable advice for how parents can raise their children effectively and lovingly without overdoing it Today in the world of Covid 19 parents may be more anxious than ever as they aim to make sense of the changing landscape of education We see now that within the context of social distancing which we may be facing for quite some time families are experiencing a mix of positive and negative influences including new stressors which cause division and even danger while at the same time some families are discovering novel ways of remaining blended together Regardless families must find their way forward to overcome bad decisions and embrace these challenging circumstances The generational desire of parents to want their children to have more opportunity and success than they did has become outdated for many families especially those of means but this has not stopped parents from going too far with their children from pushing them into needless high pressure situations to protecting them from any possible failure or disappointment While we know that it is getting harder and harder to get into a select college and after graduation it is often more difficult to find a prestigious job parents are not doing their kids any favors by resorting to any means necessary to ensure what they define as their offspring s success This work shows readers how to parent better not more allowing children to make their own mistakes and learn from them and grow into functioning self reliant adults

The Overparenting Epidemic George S. Glass, David Tabatsky, 2014-11-11 Helicopter parents tiger moms cosseters hothouse parents Whatever we label it overparenting anxious invasive overly attentive and competitive parenting may have finally backfired As we witness the first generation of overparented children becoming adults in their own right many studies show that when baby boomer parents intervene inappropriately with too much advice excessive favors and erasing obstacles that kids should negotiate themselves their millennial children end up ill behaved anxious narcissistic entitled youths unable to cope with everyday life The obsession with providing everything a child could possibly need from macrobiotic cupcakes to 24 7 tutors has created epidemic levels of depression and stress in our country s youth but this can be avoided if parents would just take a giant step back check their ambitions at the door and do what s really best for their kids Written by a noted psychiatrist and a parenting specialist The Overparenting Epidemic is a science based yet humorous and practical book that features an easy to read menu of pragmatic reasonable advice for how to parent children effectively and lovingly without overdoing it especially in the context of today s demanding world The Fastest Thirty Ballgames Douglas 'Chuck' Booth, Craig B. Landgren, Kenneth A. Lee, 2011-06-10 THE FASTEST 30 BALLGAMES is a World Record journey of dedicated Ballpark Chaser Chuck Booth In the summer of 2009 Booth accomplished this amazing feat of attending a full baseball game at every Major League Baseball home teams ballpark in only 24 calendar days Booth managed this after falling just short of the record in 2008 The book chronicles the story of Booth as he rearranged his life to attempt the World Record after hearing the inspirational story of Jim Maclaren who faced two near death experiences and how Jim overcame being a quadriplegic to become one of the most respected motivational speakers in America The story features write ups of all ballparks Booth visited during the streak with a look at traditions and physical appearance It also reveals how after he became a member of Ballpark Chasers he decided to include Chaser Guides that offer suggestions on how to travel where to eat and sleep the best parking transportation to and from the ballpark where to score the best seats and so much more This knowledge is passed on to the reader in hopes of saving them time money and stress when Ballpark Chasing around the country Co authors are fellow Ballpark Chasers Craig B Landgren and Ken Lee Craig assisted with the Ballpark Chaser Guides while Ken charted Booths record attempt in 2009 Throughout the book look for other featured Ballpark Chasers personal ballpark stories and memories that have forever changed their lives Mom and Dad Are Divorced, But I'm Not Hal W.
