Savage Imaginings:

Education Out of Bounds T. Lewis, R. Kahn, 2010-11-14 Through a unique combination of critical posthumanist and educational theories the authors engage in a surreal journey into the worlds of feral children alien reptoids and faery faiths in order to understand how social movements are renegotiating the boundaries of community Settler Colonial Governance in Nineteenth-Century Victoria Leigh Boucher, Lynette Russell, 2015-04-29 This collection represents a serious re examination of existing work on the Aboriginal history of nineteenth century Victoria deploying the insights of postcolonial thought to wrench open the inner workings of territorial expropriation and its historically tenacious variability Colonial historians have frequently asserted that the management and control of Aboriginal people in colonial Victoria was historically exceptional by the end of the century colonies across mainland Australia looked to Victoria as a model for how to manage the problem of Aboriginal survival This collection carefully traces the emergence and enactment of this model in the years after colonial separation the idiosyncrasies of its application and the impact it had on Aboriginal lives It is no exaggeration to say that the work on colonial Victoria represented here is in the vanguard of what we might see as a new Australian colonial history This is a quite distinctive development shaped by the aftermath of the history wars within Australia and through engagement with the new imperial history of Britain and its empire It is characterised by an awareness of colonial Australia's positioning within broader imperial circuits through which key personnel ideas and practices flowed and also by local settler society's impact upon and entanglements with Aboriginal Australia The volume heralds a new spatially aware movement within Australian history writing Alan Lester This is a timely astutely assembled and well nuanced collection that combines theoretical sophistication with empirical solidity Theoretically it engages knowledgeably but not uncritically with a broad range of influences including postcolonialism the new imperial history settler colonial studies and critical Indigenous studies Empirically contributors have trawled an impressive array of archival sources both standard and relatively unknown bringing a fresh eye to bear on what we thought we knew but would now benefit from reconsidering Though the collection wears its politics openly it does so lightly and without jeopardising fidelity to its sources Patrick Wolfe The Cathedral Builders Leader Scott, 1899 Living Indigenous Archives Kirsten Thorpe, 2025-11-06 Living Indigenous Archives invites readers to consider new pathways for developing and sustaining archival landscapes that are embedded with respect for Indigenous worldviews and cultural flows of knowledge Drawing on First Nations experiences in Australia the book considers the need to reframe archives in order to rebalance power and restore dignity to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people captured in the archives Contributing to research on the contested nature of archives and the need for archival decolonisation the book examines whether current dominant approaches to archiving and managing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander knowledges support Indigenous people's wellbeing and recognize Indigenous sovereignty in an archival context Drawing on autoethnographical research and a series of yarning sessions with First Nations people the book shares a number of case studies that discuss themes related to Indigenous archiving These include community engagement approaches to facilitate reciprocal relationships and counter storytelling archival reparations enacting protocols to support archives spiritual and emotional care and the support for Indigenous language revitalization in archives Living Indigenous Archives highlights the need for Indigenous reclamation of archives and the dismantling of colonial archiving models that are harmful to Indigenous people s wellbeing The book s theoretical and practical underpinnings will be relevant to academics and students working in archival studies as well as those engaged in the study of library and information science Indigenous peoples and history

Technologies of Empire Dermot Ryan,2012-12-21 Technologies of Empire looks at the ways in which writers of the long eighteenth century treat writing and imagination as technologies that can produce rather than merely portray empire Authors ranging from Adam Smith to William Wordsworth consider writing not as part of a larger logic of orientalism that represents non European subjects and spaces in fixed ways but as a dynamic technology that organizes these subjects and transforms these spaces Technologies of Empire reads the imagination as an instrument that works in tandem with writing expanding and consolidating the networks of empire Through readings across a variety of genres ranging from Smith s The Wealth of Nations and Edmund Burke s Reflections on the Revolution in France to Maria Edgeworth s Irish fiction and Wordsworth s epic poetry this study offers a new account of writing s role in empire building and uncovers a genealogy of the romantic imagination that is shot through by the imperatives of imperialism Published by University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press
