Savage Wars Of Peace Soldiers Voices 1945 1989:

British Counterinsurgency in the Post-imperial Era Thomas R. Mockaitis, 1995 This text covers the development of British counterinsurgency principles and practices since 1960 Through the study of conflicts in Borneo South Arabia Oman and Northern Ireland the author explores how Britain's unique approach to internal conflict evolved and shows how the conflicts of this era can only be fully understood by stressing the links between colonial and post colonial policy The Savage Wars of Peace Charles Allen, 1990 Britain though technically at peace since World War II has fought in a dozen wars in that time Charles Allen draws political social and moral conclusions from interviews with a wide ranging cross section of the survivors The Military and Negotiation Deborah Goodwin, 2004-11-23 A new investigation of the role of the modern soldier diplomat and the nature of military negotiation in comparison with negotiation in other key contexts This new book presents a detailed analysis of the role of the military in current operations as negotiators and liaison workers in the field It shows how very few in the academic world are writing on this specific role of the military and the nature of negotiation in this situation and such a volatile context This publication is a first in this context and has a keen audience in light of the current world order This study breaks new ground in analyzing the nature of military negotiation in relation to more generic forms of negotiation and assessing the role of the modern soldier diplomat in recent deployments around the world The author is an academic working within the military environment very few people have the same capacity and accessibility to firsthand evidence and observation Whilst peacekeeping has grown in the last decade or so no one has successfully investigated the role of the military and their approach to non violent conflict resolution on the ground as few have access to such work to make a viable detailed assessment of the nature of negotiation in a violent context but Dr Goodwin is able to do so
