Not My Will Mary Webb,1997 Comedy Stars at 78 RPM Ronald L. Smith,1998 Visit a living room on a Saturday in the 1920s What you are likely to find is family or friends gathered around the Victrola laughing at the antics of a comedy routine recorded on a disc or even a tube called the 78. Technically the 78 was produced as late as the 1950s but the real heyday of the medium ended in the 1940s as radio variety shows took their cue to air the popular comedians and to add musicians and singers for variety. The performers of the time are both familiar and foreign. From Amos n Andy to Vesta Victoria their styles were as varied as the paths they followed. Their careers are encapsulated here with a biography, a discography, a filmography and even some of the favorite comedy routines of each.

Whispers from the Cotton Tree Root Nalo Hopkinson, 2000

The lushness of language and the landscape wild contrasts and pure storytelling magic abound in this anthology of Caribbean writing. Steeped in the tradition of fabulism where the irrational and inexplicable coexist with the realities of daily life, the stories in this collection are infused with a vitality and freshness that most writing traditions have long ago lost. From spectral slaving ships to women who shed their skin at night to become owls, stories from writers such as Jamaica Kincaid, Marcia Douglas, Ian MacDonald and Kamau Brathwaite pulse with rhythms, visions and the tortured history of this spiritually rich region of the world.
