Bronner, 2021-11-21 Chains carved from a single block of wood cages whittled with wooden balls rattling inside all made with just a pocketknife are among our most enduring folk designs Who makes them and why what is their history what do they mean for their makers for their viewers for our society Simon J Bronner portrays four wood carvers in southern Indiana men who had been transplanted from the rural landscapes of their youth to industrial towns After retiring they took up a skill they remembered from childhood Bronner discusses how creativity helped these men adjust to change and how viewers responses to carving reflect their own backgrounds By recording the narratives of these men s lives the stories and anecdotes that laced their conversation Bronner finds new insight into the functions and symbolism of traditional craft Including anew illustrated afterword in which the author discusses recent developments in the carver s art this new edition will appeal to carvers scholars and anyone interested in traditional woodworking      A Gift of Angels , 2010-09-20 It rises suddenly out of the Sonoran Desert landscape towering over the tallest tree or cactus a commanding building with a sensuous dome elliptical vaults and sturdy bell towers There is nothing else like it around nor does it seem there should be This incongruity of setting is what strikes first time visitors to Mission San Xavier del Bac This great church is of another place and another time while its beauty is universal and timeless Mission San Xavier del Bac is a two century old Spanish church in southern Arizona located just a few miles from downtown Tucson a metropolis of more than half a million people in the American Southwest A National Historic Landmark since 1963 the mission s graceful baroque art and architecture have drawn visitors from all over the world Now Bernard Fontana the leading expert on San Xavier and award winning photographer Edward McCain team up to bring us a comprehensive view of the mission as we ve never seen it before With 200 stunning full color photographs and incisive text illuminating the religious historical and

Witt, 1996 Patrocino Barela emerged in 1936 as one of America's most important artists when he was featured in a show of Federal Art Project artists in New York's Museum of Modern Art He was the first Mexican American artist to receive such a high degree of recognition His carvings in native juniper wood depict deep psychological and mystical insights into the human condition Barela's art is not easily classified although his carvings display parallels to Romanesque art in their narrative quality and to Modernism in their sophisticated definition of space There is also the aspect of the primitive or of Eros as Barela is in touch with the life force the deepest level of humanity shared by all peoples and all cultures In this way his imagery suggests the tribal art of Polynesia Africa Mesoamerica and the pre Christian Middle East The artist made his home in Canon New Mexico outside of Taos He never learned much about writing and he spent much of his life working on the farms and ranches of the Rocky Mountain states He lived and died in poverty His tragic death by fire took place in the workshop where he had carved some of the most profound art of our time Driven by the undeniable need to create Barela s art transcends time and place His work comes from the roots of the land and Hispano society of New Mexico The imagery he made from the erotic to the tragic to the religious shows individuals bearing the struggles of life Barela eludes many traps into which the works of lesser artists fall and achieves penetrating insights into our deepest emotions
