New Perspectives in British Cultural History Rosalind Crone,David Gange,Katy Jones,2021-03-04 This book is composed of a selection of papers presented at a conference in Cambridge in December 2005 Cultural history is a relatively new sub discipline Over the past few decades it has become increasingly apparent that a new generation of historians has emerged These scholars have become concerned with research sources and questions traditionally beyond the scope of the discipline of history Indeed recent monographs in history have demonstrated a growing awareness of the cultural imagination in analyses of patterns of change and continuity in the past Such a movement has also encouraged the development of new networks between different disciplines in the Arts and Social Sciences The authors of these chapters come from a wide range of academic backgrounds While all are concerned with crucial issues of the past they represent a substantial variety of disciplines In addition to the historians are those trained and working in literary studies art history design music and science As early career scholars the research they present is cutting edge these contributions represent the very latest trends in cultural studies and demonstrate the attempts of new researchers to answer the most current and challenging questions that are being proposed in this field The Gospels in Art, Music and Literature Year B David

Stancliffe,2014-11-20 For all who wish to reflect on the Gospels for each major Sunday and festival this ebook offers extra dimensions of art poetry literary excerpts and music with a commentary by David Standcliffe These extra resources can inspire and broaden the imagination and understanding Ornithologies of Desire Travis V. Mason,2013-09-03

Ornithologies of Desire develops ecocritical reading strategies that engage scientific texts field guides and observation Focusing on poetry about birds and birdwatching this book argues that attending to specific details about the physical world when reading environmentally conscious poetry invites a critical humility in the face of environmental crises and evolutionary history The poetry and poetics of Don McKay provide Ornithologies of Desire with its primary subject matter which is predicated on attention to ornithological knowledge and avian metaphors This focus on birds enables a consideration of more broadly ecological relations and concerns since an awareness of birds in their habitats insists on awareness of plants insects mammals rocks and all else that constitutes place The book's chapters are organized according to apparatus that is science as ecocritical tool flight and song Reading McKay's work alongside ecology and ornithology through flight and birdsong both challenges assumptions regarding humans place in the earth system and celebrates the sheer virtuosity of lyric poetry rich with associative as well as scientific details The resulting chapters interchapter and concordance of birds that appear in McKay's poetry encourage amateurs and specialists birdwatchers and poetry readers to reconsider birds in English literature on the page and in the field Collected Poems Anne Ridler,1994 Anne Ridler's first book Poems was published in 1939 Her poetry developed in the light and shadow of the poets of the day MacNeice and Auden but also Durrell and Watkins As important is a deep affinity with the secular and devotional writers of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Ambitious for her poems she was never ambitious for reputation Like that of her friend E J Scovell her work has not received proper recognition until now She has published ten collections of poems original and translated opera libretti including Monteverdi's Orfeo She is the author of verse plays which have been performed in Oxford and London This collection contains all that she wishes to preserve from her volumes of lyric poetry together with the choruses from the play The Trial of Thomas Cranmer and a masque for music by Elizabeth Maconchy The Jesse Tree Collected Poems Isidore Gordon Ascher,1929
