Sartre Modern Thinkers Series:

Adventures in Evangelical Civility Richard J. Mouw, 2016-11-01 A Hopeful Calvinist's Quest for Common Ground
Richard Mouw one of the most influential evangelical voices in America has been on a lifelong quest for commonness engaging with others in a positive manner and advocating for a convicted civility when conversing with those with whom we disagree Through nearly half a century of scholarship leadership and ministry Mouw has sought to learn from non Christian scholars and other faith traditions and to cultivate a civility that is compatible with his Calvinist convictions In Adventures in Evangelical Civility Mouw reflects on his almost fifty years of Christian public life which provides a unique lens for understanding twentieth century evangelicalism He explores themes such as common grace the imago Dei and interfaith dialogue offering a critical assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of what he has accomplished as a spokesperson for evangelical and Reformed perspectives

Zen-Existentialism Lit-sen Chang, 2011-07-21 Modern man has found that material achievements are failing him but in his escape from despair he has become an easy prey for the deceptive cult of Zen Existentialism There has emerged a mode of radical New Humanism with its emphasis on human autonomy In place of the God man appears the man god There is a search for the world within the limitless inner space the expansion of consciousness and the transcendental experience of Satori First published in 1969 this book prophetically anticipated the growth of New Age developments in the decades to follow Lit sen Chang directly spoke to the Hippie movement of his day which was then seeking various means of transcendence through drugs and eastern mysticism This book also reflects fifty years of bitter experiences of the author's spiritual pilgrimage and shows how he was miraculously delivered by the grace and power of God from his cul de sac Chang writes of the utter futility of the fantasy of the East analyzes the root causes of the crises in the West and points out the doom of auto soterism after his careful diagnosis of the human problem in cultural philosophical religious and theological terms

Van Til Rousas John Rushdoony, 1960 Sartre's Second Century Jean-Pierre Boulé, Benedict O'Donohoe, 2009-05-27 Sartre's Second Century reflects the richness of Sartre's vision of the human condition the diversity of the means he employed in grappling with it and the lengthy trajectory of his itinerary in a variety of wider cultural perspectives The centenary of Sartre's birth in 2005 was the primary occasion for many of the essays included in this volume Hosted by the UK or North American Sartre Societies contributors participating in Sartre's centennial celebrations were asked to address the central themes and overall development of his life and thought As the present collection shows the attempt to present Sartre in a retrospective light also provides a basis for assessing the relevance of his work for the new century

Volume 19, Tome IV: Kierkegaard Bibliography Peter Šajda, Jon Stewart, 2017-03-16 The long tradition of Kierkegaard studies has made it impossible for individual scholars to have a complete overview of the vast field of Kierkegaard research The large and ever increasing number of publications on Kierkegaard in the languages of the world can be simply bewildering even for experienced scholars The present work constitutes a systematic bibliography which aims to help students and researchers navigate the seemingly endless mass of publications The volume is divided into two large sections Part I which covers Tomes I V is dedicated to individual bibliographies organized according to specific language This includes extensive bibliographies of works on Kierkegaard in some 41 different languages Part II which covers Tomes VI VII is dedicated to shorter individual bibliographies organized according to specific figures who are in some way relevant for Kierkegaard The goal has been to create the most exhaustive bibliography of Kierkegaard literature possible and thus the bibliography is not limited to any specific time period but instead spans the entire history of Kierkegaard studies

Fifty Key Contemporary Thinkers John Lechte, 2007-08-07 This revised second edition from our bestselling Key Guides includes brand new entries on some of the most influential thinkers of the twentieth and twenty first century Zizek Bergson Husserl Heidegger Butler and Haraway With a new introduction by the author sections on phenomenology and the post human full cross referencing and up to date guides to major primary and secondary texts this is an essential resource to contemporary critical thought for undergraduates and the interested reader

Existentialism and Contemporary Cinema Jean-Pierre Boulé, Ursula Tidd, 2012-09-01 Simone de Beauvoir's work has not often been associated with film studies which appears paradoxical when it is recognized that she was the first feminist thinker to inaugurate the concept of the gendered othering gaze This book is an attempt to redress this balance and reopen the dialogue between Beauvoir's writings and film studies The authors analyse a range of films from directors including Claire Denis Michael Haneke Lucille Hadzihalilovic Sam Mendes and Sally Potter by drawing from Beauvoir's key works such as The Second Sex 1949 The Ethics of Ambiguity 1947 and Old Age 1970

Communication and Confrontation Sytse Ulbe Zuidema, 1972 The Philosophy of (erotic) Love Robert C. Solomon, Kathleen Marie Higgins, 1991 Solomon and Higgins have chosen excerpts from the great philosophical texts and combined them with the most exciting new work of philosophers writing today It examines the mysteries of erotic love from a variety of philosophical perspectives and provides an impressive display of wisdom that the world's best thinkers have brought and continue to bring to the study of love

Sartre Siestse Zuidema, 1960 Contours of a Christian Philosophy L. Kalsbeek, 1975 The Philosophy of Imagination Galit Wellner, Geoffrey Dierckxsens, Marco Arienti, 2024-04-18 Combining perspectives from both continental and analytic philosophy this timely volume explores how imagination today both shapes and is shaped by technology art and ethics Imagination is one of the most significant and broadly examined concepts in contemporary philosophy and is frequently understood as a basic human faculty that enables complex activities This book shows however that imagination is more than a mere enabler Whilst imagination shapes our experiences it is at the same time shaped by our environments Some of the most creative manifestations of imagination are the result of its two way interaction with art or technology or both In short imagination co shapes us Beyond the traditional perspectives of Kant and Heidegger The Philosophy of Imagination Technology Art and Ethics examines our dynamic relationship with imagination from contemporary technological advancements such as AI that transform the whole ecosystem to imagination in the context of videogames and literary fiction Analysing societal imagination it addresses the relationship between the racial imaginary and white ignorance as well as the effects that societal mechanisms such as lockdowns can have on our imagination Taking its cue from the here and now this volume brings together leading international scholars to investigate how the concept of co shaping allows us to see
