God's Saving Grace Frank J. Matera, 2012-11-17 Distinguished biblical scholar Frank Matera here views the theology of the Pauline letters through the lens of the saving grace that Paul experienced at his call and conversion Focusing on Christology soteriology theology anthropology ecclesiology ethics and eschatology Matera explores both the unity and the diversity of the thirteen Pauline letters Written in a clear and coherent style God's Saving Grace presents students professors and pastors with a comprehensive yet concise and accessible overview of the theology found in the entire corpus of Paul's letters

New Being Kenan B. Osborne, 2013-11-21 The following study on Tillich's theology is based on a doctoral dissertation presented to the Ludwig Maximilian University at Munich in December 1967 Tillich's theology however is not a simple structure to analyze since it is so systematically interrelated Certainly every major area of his theological system involves all other major areas and even the minor areas have complex ramifications to the total system itself The following pages therefore can only be construed as one among many viewpoints of his system Tillich's theological structure might be compared to a painting or some other work of art one must view it now from this direction now from that in order to appreciate the total effect Certain points should however be mentioned here First of all a key notion in this system is essentialization This concept rounds off and completes Tillich's entire work Unfortunately Tillich himself did not write extensively on this topic nor did he actually correlate it to the beginning and middle of his system although it expresses the final telos of his entire theological work I have drawn out of the Systematic Theology as much as possible on the subject of essentialization and have tried to analyze it in light of other key concepts in his system
