Edwards, Jr.,2010-09-01 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church s ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 appearing in the print edition contains Edwards s magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching s development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative. Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time: Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine, Bernard, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, Wesley, Edwards, Rauschenbusch, Barth. All of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention. Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew. Volume 2 contained on the enclosed CD-ROM contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution. Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history. Ecumenical in scope, fair minded in presentation, appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop, deliver and listen to a sermon, A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel. This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years, says Ann K. Riggs who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission. Author Edwards, former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary, is co-moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues. A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches, we all participate in this field, says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65, Winter 2004/2005, published by the National Council of Churches.

A History of Preaching, Otis Carl Edwards, 2004. Accompanying CD-ROM contains the full text of volume one and two. Volume two contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. Each chapter in volume two is geared to its companion chapter in volume one's narrative history.

Ekirch Festschrift Kevin M. Shanley, Charles F. Howlett, 2011-09-01. Ekirch Festschrift: Essays in Honor of a Historian of Ideas in American History is a collection of writings by former students, colleagues and teachers. This work recognizes the scholarly achievement of Arthur A. Ekirch Jr. who for many years taught American history at both American University and the State University of New York at Albany. A pacifist during World War II who served in Civilian Public Service Camps, Ekirch achieved academic notoriety for his popular book The Decline of American Liberalism which remained on the History Book Club Selection for many months. During his long and distinguished teaching career, Ekirch authored and edited ten books in the field of American history. A committed liberal and individualist, Ekirch was admired by his students for his encyclopedic knowledge and wit. The significance of this collection of scholarly articles and reminiscences is that the topics in this volume cover a wide range of information involving social ideas, civil liberties, people and ideas, comparative history and brief reflections from former students including his Columbia University professor and Pulitzer Prize winning historian Merle Curti. Among the contributors to this volume are prize winning historians Walter Rundell, University of Maryland; Fred Somkin, Cornell University; Paul Scheips, U S Army Military History Center; and Donald R McCoy, University of Kansas. Other contributors also include the nation's first African American archivist at the National Archives; one of the first African American females to serve as a vice president at Howard University; and one of the first female presidents of the University of Massachusetts at Boston, all former students of Ekirch. This work was a private collection given to Ekirch shortly before his retirement from teaching in 1984. In addition, there is a comprehensive curriculum vitae of his published works, awards, papers presented, and book reviews. A newly revised preface is included in this IAP edition. The editors of this volume are Kevin M. Shanley, Emeritus Professor of History at the University at Albany, and Charles F. Howlett, Associate Professor of Graduate Education at Molloy College.
